PRAKASH SAH Author | Managing Partner & Head, Data, Analytics & AI - Manufacturing, TCS

It was my pleasure to share my thoughts with the MBA-PGPEx Batch of 2026 in July 2025 on the topic "Application of Technology and Analytics in Service Operations".

Spending time with this cohort was like plugging into a high-voltage power source - their energy, curiosity, and sharp thinking were absolutely contagious! The case study discussions were particularly impressive, the way they tackled real-world problems with such structured and creative approaches gives me immense hope.

With such bright minds shaping up, India's future is clearly in capable hands. I walked away from the session inspired and optimistic, it was truly a privilege to engage with the next generation of leaders.

A heartfelt thank you to IIM Mumbai for the opportunity - it was an experience I'll always treasure.

Thank you, Indian Institute of Management Mumbai, Professor Shirish Sangle and Professor Upasna Agarwal, for inviting me. Visiting the lush green campus after nearly 23 years was a surreal experience. Especially considering the first time involved a botched interview.

It was great to see the PGPEx Cohort troop in bright and early on a Saturday morning. I had a fun time sharing my views about Artificial Intelligence, an exciting area with news cycles in days, not months. The questions were also incisive and thoughtful, showcasing the intellect and passion of the cohort.

Wishing everyone happy learning, and a great career ahead!

It was an absolute pleasure interacting with young students at IIM Mumbai MBA-PGPEx 2026. One always gets to learn so much from the questions asked and suggestions given. Sincere thanks
