The undersigned has read the case study outlined above, in which I, and/or the organization with which I am affiliated, is described. The information used in the development of this case study has been provided as a courtesy and neither I nor my organization assume any future liability for the case study. I understand that typically, but not always, the IIM Mumbai, may test the use of this case study in a classroom environment and that as a result of this use, the case study may be modified, but not in a material way.

On the basis of my review of the attached case study, I agree that the case study may be used as outlined above and I agree that the case study does not require changes, except as noted on the attached case study.

I further agree that IIM Mumbai, in its sole discretion, may change the case study from time to time to correct typographical and grammatical errors and to rearrange paragraphs, exhibits, etc. On behalf of my organization and myself personally, I agree that other changes may be made to this case study from time to time by IIM Mumbai to enhance its use in a classroom environment and agree that

I do wish to review such changes to this case study.

I do not wish to review such changes to this case study.

IIM Mumbai will not make changes to which I reasonably object on the basis of reputational, accuracy, or confidentiality concerns.

On behalf of my organization and myself personally:

A. I hereby authorize the use of this case study at:

- i. IIM Mumbai, and
- ii. Other educational institutions and other organizations;

B. I acknowledge that the copyright for this case study is held by IIM Mumbai, and that IIM Mumbai may, in its sole discretion, distribute, sell, authorize use of this case study in a book or otherwise deal commercially with this case study in whatever way it deems appropriate. Revisions to the case study are subject to the review provisions set forth above.

I have authority to execute this agreement:
