Q. No.	Description of the Tender Clause	Bidder Comments/Remarks	IIM Mumbai's Reply
1	Solvency: The bidder must submit an original solvency certificate from a nationalized or scheduled commercial bank for an amount of at least INR 2 Crores, issued not earlier than 1 st June 2025.	Ms. Varsha Singh raised concerns about the solvency certificate and requested an extension for proposal submission.	The solvency certificate amount is Rs.40 lakhs and the timeline cannot be extended and emphasizing adherence to strict deadlines.
2	Videography and Photography Requirements for Evaluation Studies	Mr. Aquil raised questions regarding the number of videography and photography sessions needed for a sample size of 500 and 100 respondents, respectively	The Committee emphasized the necessity of geotagged photography and comprehensive videography to develop films and case studies, indicating that documentation should focus on significant cases from each state or trade.
3	Clarifications on RFP Requirements and Proposal Submission Timeline	Mr. Apoorva from AMS inquired about the RFP's requirements, including whether a valuation report is necessary and the language of the questionnaire.	The committee has clarified that the agency must prepare the report and that the questionnaire will be provided only in English, necessitating translation. Apoorva also requested an extension for the proposal submission deadline, citing insufficient time to prepare. Each agency will station two persons on the IIM campus until the completion of the survey.

4	Clarifications on Beneficiary List and Survey Implementation	Mr. Aquil from Hansa Research Group inquired about the details included in the beneficiary list, specifically whether phone numbers and addresses would be provided. Additionally, Saptarshi mentioned the need for an authorization letter from the ministry to conduct the survey.	The Committee assured that addresses would be included, while phone numbers would be part of the physical questionnaire. Need for an authorization letter from the ministry to conduct the survey, which the IPSS confirmed would be provided.
5	Clarification on Proposal Submission and Deadlines	Mr. Saptarshi Guha inquired about the necessity of including a technical presentation in the proposal submission. Guha also requested an extension for the proposal submission deadline due to various challenges, including weather conditions and recent events.	The Committee clarified that a Word document detailing the approach and quality control is required instead. The Committee acknowledged the request but indicated that they must adhere to existing deadlines unless notified otherwise. IPSS-Institute Procurement & Stores Section will communicate any possible extension of the proposal submission deadline to all agencies.
